Polar Electro Chooses Webster's Fitness

Polar Electro, the international leader in heart-rate technology, has named Webster's Fitness as their exclusive distributor for their educational division in Pennsylvania. Webster's was chosen because of our strong commitment to education in Pennsylvania, West Virginia, Ohio, New York and New Jersey.

We look forward to showing you the benefits of using the heart-rate monitors with your cardio equipment.

Introducing: Cardio GX

- Specially designed for cardio group classes (e.g. schools - indoor cycling, circuit training and aerobic)
- Helps monitor the flow of the group class and creates motivation for each participant
- Participants' heart rates and training zones are visible on screen during the class
- Group class is summarized and visible for participants on the large screen at the end of the class
